[REDACTED]
In your letter dated 28 April 1954 you ask this Agency to consider delaying taking final action in your case until 22 August 1954.

We are agreeable to deferring our action until 1 June 1954. On that date, unless we have received your formal resignation, we shall be obliged to serve you formally with notice to terminate your employment with this Agency under Section 102(a) of the National Security Act of 1947 which is quoted below for your information:

"Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6 of the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 555), or the provisions of any other law, the Director of Central Intelligence may, in his discretion, terminate the employment of any officer or employee of the Agency whenever he shall deem such termination necessary or advisable in the interests of the United States, but such termination shall not affect the right of such officer or employee to seek or accept employment in any other department or agency of the Government if declared eligible for such employment by the United States Civil Service Commission."

Since further handling of your case will be in the hands of the Assistant Director for Personnel, I suggest that you address any further communications or inquiries to him.

Very truly yours,
